

CARTER IS COMING

His Eagles Winging
Their Victorious
Flight.

Nothing Can Stop His Being the Next
Mayor.

Pledged for Reform He Is Sure to Win.

The People Believe in Him Above All Others.

All the Silk Stockings on Earth Cannot Knock
Him Out.

General Progress of the Fight for Good Government.

Carter H. Harrison will be elected Mayor by 30,000 majority.

The people want him and he cannot be beaten.

The sore-heads, lunch-route fiends, and "patent promiscuous" are against him, but the voters want him.

And that is what counts!
It is safe to say that he will carry almost every ward in Chicago.

WILL NAME S. W. ALLERTON.

Soreheads Decide to Place Him in Nomination for Mayor.

Samuel W. Allerton, the alleged parker, may be sorehead candidate for Mayor. At the private conference Tuesday night at the Great Northern Hotel a number of ratty citizens in labor and long green lines discussed the Mayoralty nomination question. At that conference Mr.
Allerton was present and acted as chairman. Among others in attendance was a committee from the Civil Service Reform League.

Many soreheads were considered in regard to the Mayoralty, and finally a committee was appointed consisting of S. W. Allerton, Charles Bary, and John M. Dunphy to act in cooperation with committees of other bodies in the presentation of the name of a proper candidate for Mayor, such name to be handed in to a future meeting of the bodies represented.

After several consultations with committees Mr. Allerton finally consented to allow the use of his name in case the nomination was tendered him by the reform and labor elements.

MARQUETTE CLUB'S CANDIDATES.

Sexton, Davis and Allerton Are Favored for the Mayoralty.

At a meeting of the Political Action Committee of the Marquette Club Wednesday night, three men were discussed as acceptable candidates for the Mayoralty nomination, and they were endorsed in the following order: First choice, James A.
Sexton; second, George R. Davis; third, Samuel W. Allerton. A committee consisting of John Worthly, John J. Arney and Lloyd Smith was appointed to confer with the meeting of ward representatives and newspaper men. The committee recommended that the Marquette Club indorse the nomination of Sara C. Peck for Alderman from the Twenty-fourth Ward.

Active work was advocated in the present campaign, and the following committee was appointed to take charge of the various of registration in the different wards: R. A. Bingham, Twenty-fifth; J. E. Rogers, Twenty-

MR. JAMES W. CRAWFORD.

The next Assessor of the North Town, who for many years was Chief Deputy for Samuel B. Chase.

C. B. Obermeyer, Twenty-fourth; F.
G. Tucker, Twenty-fifth; E. Q. Ball, Twenty-third; Lloyd J. Smith, Twenty-sixth.

A committee was appointed to draw up resolutions to be submitted to the State Legislature favoring the abolition of Justices' courts and establishing a system of municipal courts with salaried Judges. The change is believed necessary so that a Judge can have no pecuniary interest in the case before him.

Those present were: Herman B.
Wickersham, John Worthly, L. J.
Smith, C. B. Obermeyer, F. B. Roach, Fred J. Tucker, Newton Wyeth, J. E.
Rogers, John H. Johnson, and Frank Hamlin.

KENT IS A WINNER.

What the Evening Journal Says About the Able Eleventh Ward Alderman.

From the Evening Journal:

It appears to be generally understood among the leading Republicans in the Eleventh Ward that Alderman W. D. Kent is to be re-elected.
"He has made a good record and shown himself a trustworthy and capable member, and the Republicans of the Eleventh can do no better than to return him for a second term," said ex-Alderman W. M. Pond. "I regard Mr. Kent as one of the most available men for Alderman. He has acquired experience during the last term and will be able to represent his constituents in a creditable manner. No objection has been made to his past record and I think he will not have any opposition."

W. J. Wilson was found to be a staunch friend of Mr. Kent. Said he was an honest, capable young man and would be re-elected.

B. A. Eckhardt expressed himself as being decidedly in favor of the re-election of Alderman Kent. Said he was a strong man and had made an excellent alderman.

Arch M. Campbell was found very enthusiastic in his determination to aid in securing the renomination of Mr. Kent. "He is made of the right kind of timber and has the ability to make a mayor of whom Chicago might be proud, and if he was a few years older I think he would be favorably considered for the office."

ALL FOR CRAWFORD.

The Popular Candidate for Assessor is Sure to Win on the North Side.

The young men of North Chicago will cast a heavy vote for their favorites on election day, and the young men are generally correct when they single out a candidate as particularly worthy of their support.

The genial gentleman whose portrait graces this sketch has been weighed in the balance by this class of voters, and without regard to partialities they have declared that he has not been "least wanting." James W. Crawford, who is making a popular race as the regular Democratic nominee for North an example of the possibilities of an energetic, sturdy, and straightforward citizen of to-day, for at the age of 10 years the death of his father threw the burden of supporting his widowed mother and the family upon his youthful shoulders. He did not flatter, but steadfastly undertook the task, and has succeeded in not only providing those dependent upon him with support but has bestowed upon his sisters a liberal education.

Mr. Crawford has followed various occupations, never scorned hard work that promised fair remuneration. He served on the Board of Trade as bookkeeper and cashier for B. P. Hutchinson for four years, and acted in the same capacity in the Sub-Treasurer's office for one year.

James W. Crawford is one of the clearest young business men in this city. He is a typical Chicagoan of unlimited pluck and energy. He was born in Chicago—on the North Side —in 1860, and has resided there ever since. He is an educated and polished gentleman, and throughout his career he has been a hard-working and consistent Democrat, and his counsel and advice is considered invaluable by the leaders of his party.
His influence has always been thrown on the side of honesty and decency.
Mr. Crawford seems to be a man who is liked, and, best of all, by those who know him best. He has for the past five years served as Chief Deputy under Assessor S. B. Chase, and his experience in this position makes him an invaluable man in the office.

The warmth with which his nomination has been welcomed by his fellow citizens of the North-Side, without distinction of party, has been noticeable the present week.
This goes to prove that Mr. Crawford will command the suffrages of the people of the North Town. It won't pay to "swap horses" in this case—as the election of Mr. Crawford means the same fair, honest, and just treatment of all taxpayers that has characterized all dealings with ex-Assessor Chase for so many years in the past. James W. Crawford should be elected by a rousing majority, for in his hands the office of the North Town Assessor will be managed on business principles, and according to such methods as would be expected of a man of extraordinary ability and unswerving integrity.

ALDERMAN SABATH.

The Prominent Young Bohemian and His Five Years.

A. J. Sabath a prominent young Bohemian, 27 years of age, who has resided in the Ninth Ward for the past thirteen years, will undoubtedly receive the Democratic nomination for Alderman.

Mr. Sabath will make the race as the candidate of the young men, among whom he is decidedly popular with all classes, without distinction as to party. He is a clean business

Mr. Sabath is a bright young attorney and well educated. He is a graduate of Forest University, where he received his degree as bachelor of law.

He is also engaged in the real estate and loan business.

His father and mother, three brothers and four sisters, are dependent upon him for support, and right well he provides for them. He is bound his brothers and sisters shall receive a liberal education, regardless of expense. Mr. Sabath would make a splendid member of the Council.
He is public-spirited and in favor of clean streets, lower taxes, track elevation, a better public service, free public baths, etc. Mr. Sabath will prove a strong candidate on account of his great popularity and eminent ability.

WOES OF WASH

Tersely Told to an Uncomplaining
Audience.

Barrister Keogh Reads Fight Returns to Keep Up Interest.

While Isaac K. Boyesen
Beats a Drum
Solo.

An elegant assortment of barrel-house bums, ex-whisky thieves, and doughnut politicians assembled in Central Music Hall on Wednesday night, ostensibly to hear W. Hesing tell of his woes, and incidentally to hear the returns from the New Orleans prize-fight.

Among the well-known stiffs on the platform were Gen. Lieb and Gen.
Mead.

During Mr. Hesing's remarks, Sylvester R. Keogh, a prominent barrier barrister, read the returns by rounds of the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight, which was going on at New Orleans, to relieve the monotony.

Mr. Hesing was greatly applauded when he referred to the fact that some of the attendants at the city convention had been in the County Jail for committing frauds on the revenue laws.

Mr. George Braham, a well-known baritone politician, sang a verse entitled, "Coming Through the Rye."

Mr. Hesing thereupon announced that he never had been a candidate for Mayor, anyhow; that he was a Republican, and that he didn't care who knew it.

Mr. Isaac K. Boyesen here executed a drum solo after the "Dead March in Saul."

Mr. Hesing then announced that "the present administration, as you must admit, is a failure as lamentable as can be conceived. The City Hall is not only overrun and infested by thieves and bums, but is actually owned and run by elements as unprincipled and shameful as they can possibly be. The same gang, the same Aldermanic combine, the same contractors' ring that are in possession of the City hall, your City Hall, seek to perpetuate themselves; they care nothing for party; they care less for the city's welfare."

He forgot to explain that this is the reason why the people want Carter Harrison elected.

At this point Mr. Keogh, in his rich seltzer water voice, announced that Hall had been knocked out in the fourth round.

Thereupon the crowd, without waiting to hear what Mr. Armstrong said about a collection, filed out.

VOTE FOR GOSSELIN.

The Popular Young Alderman of the Seventeenth Will Be Returned.

Ald. Stephen M. Gosselin, of the Seventeenth Ward, deserves to be re-elected. He has been one of the best and most active members of the Chicago City Council for the past two years, and has made a fine record.

Ald. Gosselin was born in the ward which he represents, and is very popular with all classes.
